

NEW BOARD MEMBERS

Your board of directors elected two new board members in 2023 and they are presented here for ratification:

Rev. Sarah Kent, B.Msc.
New Dimension Tattoos

Sarah moved to Calgary, AB in 2007 from Mississauga, ON where she helped run and manage a small family business. Sarah always loved running small business and interacting with its customers.

Sarah owns and operates two small businesses which she enjoys very much. She was always intrigued by the multi-level structures of businesses and their challenges. Sarah has an extensive metaphysical background and since moving to Calgary has received a Bachelors of Metaphysics from University of Metaphysics in Sedona.

Sarah loves meeting new people, organizing and structuring her surroundings to make them more efficient, and using her creativity to improve things. In her spare time she enjoys the outdoors, reading, studying on various topics including health and human rights.

Yang (Beth) Bai
Jade Sunrise Law

Beth is a lawyer who is passionate about providing the best resolution for clients in an expedient and efficient way. For the past few years, she's been helping individual clients and organizations to receive conclusive and hassle-free resolution of their issues in areas of family disputes, civil litigation and various business needs. Her primary areas of practice include general civil litigation, family disputes, immigration appeals, business commercial transactions, as well as drafting corporate documents for small to mid-sized businesses.

When she's not on the job, she loves playing squash, hiking, working her way through an interesting recipe in her family cookbook, and indulging her love for traveling.

Bindu Jejurkar,
UPS Store

Bindu has owned and operated the UPS Store on Centre St. with her husband Akshay for more than 14 years. She loves the direct interaction with customers and is passionate about serving small businesses with services like printing, custom packing, shipping and more. In her spare time, she loves to watch/ read inspirational/ motivational/ self improvement videos, quotes and books. If the weather allows, she loves walking and playing with her dog.

Nominations to the board will be accepted until 4 p.m. November 10, 2023. Please see crescentheightsvillage.ca/agm2023 for nomination forms and procedures.

